

Coup for Matthews Folbigg Lawyers - National Law Firm Partner Joins The Firm

Date : March 18, 2014

Coup for Matthews Folbigg Lawyers - National Law Firm Partner Joins The Firm

In a significant boost to its Corporate capability, MatthewsFolbigg is thrilled to announce the appointment of Andrew Bristow as Director and Catriona Glover as Special Counsel with effect from 31 March 2014.

Andrew and his team joins Matthews Folbigg from national law firm Herbert Geer. Andrew's specialty is in Mergers and Acquisitions law with a broad range of corporate clients listed on the ASX and NSX. In addition, the team undertakes commercial work for clients from a range of industries, including some based in Norwest.

Matthews Folbigg's Managing Director, Stephen Jenkins, said these appointments marked a further boost to the firm's Corporate offering in Western Sydney. "This is an exciting development for Matthews Folbigg as we are now the only law firm outside the Sydney CBD that can offer Corporate Listing skills to the business community of Western Sydney. With their extensive corporate experience and strong relationships within the market they are an excellent fit for the firm and our clients and we are looking forward to welcoming Andrew and his team to Matthews Folbigg."