

Owners Corporation and Financial Management

Date : January 5, 2017

An Owners Corporation can enter into a payment plan for the recovery of unpaid levies (which are non-binding) and can also, within 3 years, make an application to recover the difference from the original owner. If you are unsure about your rights and obligations as part of an Owners Corporation please contact us to speak with one of our professional strata lawyers who can advise you on various strata schemes issues.
